Summer Sleuthing at Lansing Public Library

Welcome to our Summer Reading Club for Adults. The club runs from June 11 to July 28, 2007. Pick up your summer sleuthing packet at the Adult Services Desk. After you read five books bring in your reading log to the Adult Services desk and choose a book as a prize. The more you read the better your chance to win the grand prize. Stop by the Adult Services desk to pick up a list of reading suggestions for your summer reads.

Book Discussion: Devil In the White City by Erik Larson

June 5 at 10:30 a.m. and June 6 at 6:30 p.m. Their fates were linked by the magical Chicago World's Fair of 1893, nicknamed the “White City” for its majestic beauty. Architect Daniel Burnham built it; serial killer Dr. H. H. Holmes used it to lure victims to his World’s Fair Hotel, designed for murder. Both men left behind them a powerful legacy, one of brilliance and energy, the other of sorrow and darkness. Discussions are always open to new members! Books are available at the Circulation Desk one month before the discussion.

Community Block Party!

June 8 from 5 p.m.-9 p.m. Pick up your summer reading packet and start reading! Fun, a storyteller, games and music for everyone! Listen to Eric Lambert with Dan Soto perform a broad range of original, folk & Americana music, and “classic rock” favorites! Fun for the whole family!

Printers Row Book Fair Bus Trip

Sunday, June 10, 2007

9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

The Midwest’s largest free outdoor literary event features 150 new, used and antiquarian booksellers and more than 100 captivating programs including author readings, panel discussions, cooking demonstrations and children’s activities. Cost $20.00 per person (cash only).

Please make your prepaid reservation at the Adult Services Desk. No refunds unless we cancel the trip. Limited to 48 persons. Lunch is on your own. A coach bus will pick up at the Lansing Library in the North parking lot at 9 a.m. and return at 4 p.m. (return time may be later, depending on traffic.) For more information on authors scheduled to appear, visit the Chicago Tribune’s Printers Row Book Fair website <http://www.chicagotribune.com/extras/printersrow>

Book

Discussion: This Dame For Hire by Sandra Scoppettone

June 19 at 11:30 a.m.

Secretary Faye Quick takes over the job of private detective from her boss who has joined the Army during WWII and then literally trips over the body that becomes her first case. Discussions are always open to new members! Books are available at the Circulation Desk one month before the discussion.

End of Summer Reading July 28 from 12 p.m. to 3 p.m.

All Adult Summer Reading Participants are invited to join us for pizza & pop. There will be a Speed Readers Review and Hitchcock Trivia. Without a “Shadow Of A Doubt” this will conclude the Adult Summer Sleuthing. Enjoy your summer and continue to read, read, read!

Movie Time
Purls of Wisdom
Hands-On Computer Workshops

Donate blood at the Heartland Blood Drive August 14 from 10 a.m.- 2 p.m. in the Community Room. Reserve your appointment at the Adult Services Desk.

New Tutorials

We've added demonstrations to the library catalog. Learn how to renew books online, place a request on an item, see a list of new DVDs, or suspend your holds before going on vacation! They only take a few minutes to watch, and you can find the links under the "tutorials" tab in our catalog. Use them at the library or at home!
(<http://tinyurl.com/3d23mh>)

New Computers!

We added two new computers for the public which have a CD/DVD drive, USB ports, and media ports for all sizes of removable digital camera memory cards! The new computers are located by the Adult Reference Desk.

Computer Workshops

We're taking a break this summer! Hands-on workshops will resume in September.

Watch the next issue of the newsletter for details, or stop by the Adult Services Desk in August to sign-up.

Workshops this fall will include Mouse, Internet Search Engines, Internet Trusted Websites, and Getting Started with Microsoft Word.

Avatar deadline:
Friday July 20, 2007.

AVATAR, an icon that is used to represent a person online, is the name of the bi-monthly newsletter that focuses on the Lansing Library Teens! We are looking for submissions on books, music, movies, politics or anything else you find interesting. Essays, photos and drawings are all accepted! Not all submissions will be chosen. Type or clearly write any stories or essays, and make sure your name is on everything you turn in. Turn in your submissions at the teen desk on paper, disk, or email to teen@lansing.lib.il.us

The Great Fine Work-Off

If you've got fines on your library card from late items or a lost book, you can work at the library this summer to pay the fines off! This new program is open to Lansing cardholders and reciprocal borrowers between the ages of 10 and 15. Parental permission is required; ask for all the details at the Teen Reference Desk.

Scholastic Book Fair

Begins the week of July 2 and runs through July 27
All items are half price this summer—we have adult titles, children's books, gift items, and much more! They make great gifts for birthdays, holidays, teachers, etc.

Thursday 9:00-3:00

Saturday 1:00-5:00

Read For a Lifetime

The "Read for a Lifetime" program is a state-sponsored program for teens in grades 9-12. All you have to do is read 4 books from the RFAL list. That's it. You may have even read a few already! (The new Harry Potter book is on the list!) If you're interested, you have to sign up at the Teen Desk by Monday, October 1, 2007. Then you have until March 31, 2008 to read the four books. That's plenty of time! All you have to do is read one book a month. It looks good on college applications, plus you get a certificate from the State and a coupon for Waldenbooks.

Obtaining a Library Card

Library cards are issued to Lansing residents free-of-charge with proper identification to prove residency, such as a valid photo I.D. and two acceptable items with your current Lansing address. If the photo I.D. shows your current Lansing address, you only need to provide one additional acceptable item with your current Lansing address, such as a current utility bill.

Lansing residents under the age of 18 must have a parent or legal guardian, with proper identification, sign for them.

We encourage patrons to sign-up for internet access so they can take full advantage of all the library resources, including access to our online subscriptions providing quality resources not freely available on the Internet.

Parents still have the option to make this decision for their minor children.

Use your library card to check out one of our ... Brookfield Zoo passes! Adult Lansing residents may check out the pass for 3 days. Limit one pass per family. The pass entitles any combination of four adults or children free general admission to Brookfield Zoo during all public hours. Parking not included. $10 refundable deposit required at check out. Ask about zoo pass availability at the Adult Circulation Desk.

Want to listen to some music in the library, or on the go? Check out one of our portable CD players, available at the lower level Circulation Desk!

Lansing Public Library is a wi-fi hot spot! Use your laptop or PSP to search for available wireless networks, then connect!
